

Heritage Series

Homegrown Black Henrico Panel

This event features a panel discussion with notable Black professionals who are also HCPS alumni.

Student hosts will pose questions about college and career paths, Black professional identity, and the role HCPS played in preparing them for success and/or hardships. Panelists will include professionals in the health, fashion, and television/film industries.

Thursday, February 25, 2021 at 6:00pm

Click here to register.

Featured Panelists

Dr. Raynard Washington

Deputy Health Director,
Mecklenburg County, NC
Henrico High School,
International Baccalaureate

Queen Harrison Claye

Olympian, Track and Field
Hermitage High School

