Join her campaign
as an INTERN

Apply today

Interns will be trained in the basics of organizing & campaign fundamentals and then work in our community to carry out grassroots activities. As an Intern we will train you to help the campaign expand our community outreach efforts!

Interns will be asked to commit to a minimum of 8-12 hours per week and will:

- Participate in training and field organizing, learn about messaging, and other activities
- Help to organize our community, working in conjunction with grassroots leaders and campaign staff
- Engage new potential volunteers through phone calls and canvassing
- Empower new voters by collecting voter registration forms
- Take part in organizational meetings to recruit new volunteers and supporters in communities
- Use social networks to help amplify our message and to talk about the work that we do
- Continue to build the movement to help elect Democrats up down the ticket this November
