

LONGWOOD

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
AND ECONOMICS

Dual enrollment ECONOMICS and PERSONAL FINANCE completely online!

Fulfill your high-school graduation requirement for Economics and Personal Finance AND earn 3 hours of college credit from Longwood University when you successfully complete this online, dual-enrollment class that lets you set the time and pace.

WANT TO FIND OUT MORE?

For more details, including upcoming registration periods and course dates, visit go.longwood.edu/EPF or contact us at cfr@longwood.edu or 434.395.2546 (talk only).

MAXIMUM FLEXIBILITY

- Are you a night owl? Have a part-time job? Have some free time during the day? Because it's completely online, this course gives you the flexibility to do the work when and where it's most convenient for you. (Just be sure to turn in assignments by the posted deadlines.)
- Take the express route. Successful completion usually takes about 120 hours of reading, studying and completing assignments.
- Condensed, 4-week option
 - Summer session: late June to late July
- No-rush registration period. With two months before each session to register, you'll have plenty of time to consider the options.

2 COURSES FOR 1 PRICE

- You'll fulfill your high-school graduation requirement for Economics and Personal Finance AND earn 3 hours of college credit that should transfer to other four-year colleges and universities, including Virginia's other public universities.
- Course tuition: $50