

Dear Rising IBMYP Tenth Graders,

This summer you should continue working on your Personal Project. Remember, you have chosen a learning goal to complete, and a product that you will create to show what you have learned. This will be important for the fall, so make sure you are working on it! Here is a the website with all of the information you need:
<https://sites.google.com/henrico.k12.va.us/hhspersonalproejct/home>

I have enclosed a book list of the texts that we will be reading and analyzing as a class this year (for Units 4 & 5, choose ONE text listed). I have provided the specific ISBN for 12 Angry Men - this is the stage play version that we will be reading in class - please be careful not to purchase the screenplay. We will be reading and analyzing additional texts which you will be given in class.

Over the course of the next year, we will study and apply the enclosed literary terms, parts of speech, parts of a sentence, and writing terms. We will have a test on these terms/concepts in the first weeks of school.

Also, check the supply list for more information about what you will need in IBMYP English 10. Have a great summer & I look forward to meeting you in the fall!

Sincerely,
Ms. Frost
